

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Round Table «Approaching the EU through high standards in education and scientific researches» in the context of the project Jean Monnet Module for the post-graduate students will be held November 20-th at 17.30 (Room 218, the central building).

Free entrance. Graduate and postgraduate students, applicants, teachers are invited.

The programme of the round table

«Approaching the EU through high standards in education and scientific researches»

The topics to be discussed by the post-graduate students:

1. Defining the main objectives of the course «Academic Writing» in the context of integration in the European space of higher education and research.
2. The European-centered competences obtained by the post-graduate students for the knowledge and life learning society while learning the course.
3. The meaning of the term European dimension for the post-graduate students in the course «Academic Writing».
4. The role of critical reading, critical writing and critical thinking in the course «Academic Writing».
5. Strengthening academic integrity in the course «Academic Writing».
6. The evaluation of such phenomena as plagiarism in the scientific environment.
7. The formation of academic culture of the post-graduate students in the course «Academic Writing».
8. The importance of dissemination of European integrity and academic norms in scientific papers by the post-graduate students.